How did that go? Did you get what you wanted? List the problems your class encountered here.

Not well because everyone was screaming all at the same time

Step Two

Get into groups of five or six (maybe the table you are sitting at), talk as a group and write down at least three reasons why you should get ten extra minutes of recess.

1. We are awesome
2. " work hard
3. Our teacher is so nice

In addition, is there anything you are willing to do to get that ten extra minutes of recess?

1. Clean the room

Now, pick one person from your group to represent you in a meeting with your teacher. When they are done meeting have them report back to the group the decision that was made.

Hopefully in this lesson you learned that everyone screaming at your teacher didn't get you what you wanted, but by sending a representative to work together in a small group achieved your goal.
