

Section Two Vocabulary

Indigenous People: the first people in a place Anishinaabek: some of the first people of the Great Lakes region traditional story: important stories that are passed down through time migration: movement of people to a new area to find better living conditions artifacts: objects from the past archaeologist: a special historian who studies artifacts of the past culture: the way of life for a group of people reservation: land set aside for Indigenous People